Snow Emergency Parking Restrictions:

Residents are reminded that parking is prohibited from November 1st to April 15th on all village streets between 1:00 a.m. and 7:00 a.m. after a 1" snowfall. Citations will be issued to vehicles parked in violation of the snow emergency parking restrictions.

Sidewalk Maintenance:

The Village will be enforcing the ordinance concerning clearing of snow and ice from sidewalks. Avoid costly penalties or charges, keep your sidewalk clear! It is the duty of every owner, occupant, agent or person in charge of any premises, improved or vacant within the Village that abuts upon any sidewalk to keep the sidewalk, free from rubbish, dirt, filth of any kind, SNOW and ICE. Any owner, occupant or agent or person in charge of any premises, improved or vacant, who neglects for the period of twenty-four hours after any rubbish, dirt, filth of any kind, snow or ice has been deposited, or formed upon the sidewalk upon which such premises abuts to remove the same, shall forfeit a penalty for each and every period of twelve hours during which neglect may continue. The Village Board reserves the right to excuse any person or persons from cleaning their sidewalks of snow where the Board deem it unnecessary. Sidewalks not cleared of snow or ice in a timely manner, may be cleared by the Public Works Dept. and the property owner charged for the work at the rate of $75 plus 50¢ per foot of sidewalk, per incident. This charge may be placed on the tax roll as a lien on the property. Residents are reminded to not blow or shovel snow on to the plowed streets. If you are planning on using an ATV to plow snow, restrictions apply. Contact Marshal Stuckart email: marshal@brownsvillevi.gov with questions.

Thank You to the Lions Club:

If you are enjoying the holiday lighting in the Village, make sure to thank a Lions Club member. The Brownsville Lions have been sponsoring this holiday cheer for over 50 years!
